

Baltimore City, as the case may be]. Such report shall exhibit in detail and under proper heads the resources and liabilities of the bank or trust company at the close of the business of any past day by the Commissioner specified, and shall be transmitted to said Commissioner within ten days after the receipt of the request from him. Such reports shall be published in a newspaper of the city or village or county where such bank or trust company is located, in condensed form as may be prescribed by the Commissioner. Proof of said publication shall be furnished to the said Commissioner within fifteen days after the receipt of the aforesaid call. At least once in each year every bank and trust company shall report to the Commissioner on call by him a list of its stockholders, their residences and the amount of stock held by each, which report shall be signed and verified by the oath and affirmation of one of the officers of said bank or trust company. The Commissioner shall also have the power to call for special reports from any bank or trust company whenever, in his judgment, the same is necessary to inform him fully of the condition of the bank or trust company.

SECTION 14. And be it further enacted, That Section 8 of Article 15, Annotated Code of Maryland (1968 Replacement Volume), title "Bounding Lands," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

8. Oath of commissioners.

Each commissioner shall, before he proceeds in the execution of the commission, otherwise than by giving such notice and issuing summonses for witnesses as herein provided, take an oath before a [justice of the peace] notary public, or some other of the commissioners, that he will settle and adjust the location of the land mentioned in the commission, most agreeably to the true original location thereof, according to the evidences and circumstances which shall be offered or appear to him, without favor, affection, or partiality, according to the best of his experience and judgment, and will make a true return thereof.

SECTION 15. And be it further enacted, That Sections 66E(c) and 66E(d) of Article 16, Annotated Code of Maryland (1966 Replacement Volume and 1971 Supplement), title "Chancery," Subtitle, "Paternity Proceedings," be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

66E. Process, Pleading, Practice, etc.

(c) Warrant or subpoena.—Upon the filing of the bill or petition the court may issue a warrant for the apprehension and arrest of the defendant or defendants or any of them directed to any officer of this State authorized to execute warrants, commanding him to apprehend the defendant or defendants and bring him, her, or them before the court for the purpose of answering and having an adjudication as to the matters complained of in the bill or petition. [The warrant shall specify the amount of bond, if any shall be allowed, on which the defendant or defendants may be released pending hearing.] In lieu of a warrant, the court in its discretion may issue a subpoena for the appearance of the defendant or defendants or any of them. The subpoena shall state the time and place for the defendant or defendants to ap-
