

have concurrent jurisdiction over such offense with the circuit courts for their respective counties; and any]. Any fine shall be paid pursuant to the provisions of Article 38 § 4. Any person who shall commit any of the crimes, offenses or misdemeanors as defined by this section may be arrested, tried and convicted as herein provided, in any county or city in this State, where said public place may be located, or in any county or city in this State, from, to or through which the said streetcar, electric car, railroad car, passenger train, or other public conveyance may run, or into which he may be brought by said car or other public conveyance; or in any county or city in the State in which he may be found after said crimes, offenses or misdemeanors have been committed. And any person who shall commit any of the crimes, misdemeanors or offenses herein mentioned upon any steamboat, upon the waters of the Chesapeake Bay, within the limits of this State, and without the body of any county thereof, may be tried in any court [or before any justice of the peace] of this State having jurisdiction of similar crimes, offenses and misdemeanors of the county in which he may be arrested or into which he may be first brought.

(e) A person who shall have been convicted or have forfeited collateral under the provisions of subsection (a) or (b) of this section three (3) times in the preceding twelve (12) months shall be deemed an habitual offender and may be committed by the court to an appropriate alcoholism treatment facility for a period of not more than sixty (60) days. [The trial magistrates and the judges of the people's courts of the respective counties of this State and the Municipal Court of Baltimore City shall have concurrent jurisdiction of such offense with the circuit court of their respective counties.] Any member of a city, town, or county or State Police force may, in lieu of incarcerating an intoxicated person for violation of subsections (a) or (b) of this section, take or send the intoxicated person to his home or to a public or private health facility; provided, that the law enforcement officer may take reasonable measures to ascertain the commercial transportation used for such purposes is paid for by such person in advance. Any law enforcement officers so acting shall be considered as carrying out their official duty.

§ 124. Disorderly conduct on land of another.

Any person who shall enter upon the land or premises of any other person, whether such person be the owner or lessee of said land or premises and wilfully act in a disorderly manner by making loud and unseemly noises, or by profanely cursing or swearing or using obscene language or acting in any other disorderly manner while thereon, shall upon conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one dollar and not more than twenty-five dollars, and the costs of the prosecution; [and the several justices of the peace of this State shall have concurrent jurisdiction over such offense with the circuit courts for their respective counties;] and when said fine and costs are not paid, the parties so convicted may [shall] be committed to the county jail [for a term not exceeding thirty days or until discharged in due course of law] pursuant to the provisions of article 38, § 4; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall only apply to Allegany County, Caroline County, Cecil County, Charles County, Frederick County, Harford County, Howard County, Montgomery
