

vision of this section who at the time of said conviction is the holder of a license for hunting any wild bird or animal under the provisions of Article 66C, shall have his license revoked immediately upon conviction for a period of one year. Any person who is not the holder of such a license shall not be issued a license until one year after any conviction under the provisions of this section.

§ 577. Wanton trespass upon private land or vessel; legislation by Baltimore City prohibiting denial or accommodations, etc., by public places.

Any person or persons who shall enter upon or cross over the land, premises or private property, including boarding any boat or other marine vessel, of any person or persons in this State after having been duly notified by the owner or his agent not to do so shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof [before some justice of the peace] in the county where such trespass may have been committed be fined [by said justice of the peace] not less than one, nor more than one hundred dollars, and shall stand committed to the jail of the county pursuant to the provisions of Article 38, § 4. [until such fine and costs are paid, provided, however, that the person or persons so convicted shall have the right to appeal from the judgment of said justice of the peace to the circuit court for the county where such trespass was committed, at any time within ten days after such judgment was rendered]; [and,] provided[, further], that nothing in this section shall be construed to include within its provisions the entry upon or crossing over any land when such entry or crossing is done under a bona fide claim or right of ownership of said land, it being the intention of this section only to prohibit any wanton trespass upon the private land of others. Provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall preclude the mayor and city council of Baltimore from enacting legislation making it unlawful or prohibitory to refuse, withhold from or deny to any person because of his race, creed, color or national origin any accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges of any place or places whose facilities, accommodations, services, commodities or use are offered to or enjoyed by the general public, either with or without charge.

§ 579. Trespassing upon lands controlled by State Game and Inland Fish Commission.

In order to protect the State of Maryland in its propagation of game and fish, it shall be unlawful for any person to enter or trespass in any manner, unauthorized, on any land or waters owned or controlled by the State for the use of the [Game Department or Fish Department] Game and Inland Fish Commission, or lands which have been acquired as game preserves or refuges, or for fish ponds or hatcheries, and it shall be unlawful to destroy or deface or damage in any manner such properties. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction [before any justice of the peace,] shall be fined the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00).

§ 581. Persons deemed tramps; penalty; Allegany County excepted.

Every person, not insane, who wanders about in this State and lodges in market houses, market places, or in other public buildings,
