

laws of the state in which it was committed, a judge or [justice of the peace] District Court commissioner in this State may admit the person arrested to bail by bond, with sufficient sureties, and in such sum as he deems proper, conditioned for his appearance before him at a time specified in such bond, and for his surrender, to be arrested upon the warrant of the Governor of this State.

31. Discharge, recommitment or renewal of bail.

If the accused is not arrested under warrant of the Governor by the expiration of the time specified in the warrant or bond, a judge or [justice of the peace] District Court commissioner may discharge him or may recommit him for a further period not to exceed sixty days, or a judge or [justice of the peace] commissioner may again take bail for his appearance and surrender, as provided in § 30, but within a period not to exceed sixty days after the date of such new bond.

32. Forfeiture of bail.

If the prisoner is admitted to bail, and fails to appear and surrender himself according to the conditions of his bond, the judge or [justice of the peace] District Court commissioner by proper order, shall declare the bond forfeited and order his immediate arrest without warrant if he be within this State. Recovery may be had on such bond in the name of the State as in the case of other bonds given by the accused in criminal proceedings within this State.

37. Application for issuance of requisition; by whom made; contents.

(I) When the return to this State of a person charged with crime in this State is required, the State's attorney of the county or the City of Baltimore, as the case may be, shall present to the Governor his written application for a requisition for the return of the person charged, in which application shall be stated the name of the person so charged, the crime charged against him, the approximate time, place and circumstances of its commission, the state in which he is believed to be, including the location of the accused therein, at the time the application is made and certifying that, in the opinion of the said prosecuting attorneys the ends of justice require the arrest and return of the accused to this State for trial and that the proceeding is not instituted to enforce a private claim.

(II) When the return to this State is required of a person who has been convicted of a crime in this State and has escaped from confinement or broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole, the State's attorney of the county or the City of Baltimore, in which the offense was committed, the parole commission, or the warden of the institution or sheriff of the county, from which escape was made, shall present to the Governor a written application for a requisition for the return of such person, in which application shall be stated the name of the person, the crime of which he was convicted, the circumstances of his escape from confinement or of the breach of the terms of his bail, probation or parole, the state in which he is believed to be, including the location of the person therein at the time application is made.
