

25. Tampering with samples.

Any person or persons who shall pull out or break off any leaf or leaves, or in any manner tamper with any sample of tobacco, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall upon conviction [thereof in the Criminal Court of Baltimore City,] be fined not more than one hundred dollars for each offense; and no person, except the inspector, sampler, sample tier, or other designated employee shall be permitted to handle any bundle of tobacco, drawn for the purpose of a sample until the same shall have been tied up and sealed as required by law; and any unauthorized person handling said tobacco in violation of the provisions of this section, shall pay a fine of twenty dollars for each offense to be recovered [before any police justice of the City of Baltimore,] in the District Court as other fines are now recovered. It shall be the duty of each and every employee in the State tobacco warehouses to report to the inspector any and all violations of the provisions of this section that may come to his notice or of which he may be cognizant; and it shall be the duty of the inspector to make a memorandum in writing, of each and every such violation reported to him as aforesaid in a book to be kept in his office for that purpose, and to be open to public inspection.

26. Loss of certificate or note—In general.

If any certificate or note be lost or mislaid or destroyed the person entitled to receive the tobacco by virtue of such note or certificate may make oath before a [justice of the peace] notary public to the effect of said note being lost and shall take a certificate to that effect from [such justice of the peace] the notary public to the inspector and deposit the same with him; then the inspector may deliver to such person a new note or certificate with marks, numbers, weights and date corresponding with the former note and the inspector shall thereby be discharged from all action and demands on account of such former note or certificate.

80. Transportation of diseased trees; vines, shrubs.

Should any nurseryman, agent, broker, dealer, or other person send out or deliver within the State, or transport to any other state or territory or the District of Columbia, trees, vines, shrubs, plants, buds or cuttings, subject to the attacks of insects and diseases above provided for, without attaching a copy of said certificate, deface or destroy said certificate, or wrongfully attach a certificate, he shall be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall upon conviction [before any justice of the peace] be fined a sum not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) and costs of prosecution for each and every offense, [and stand committed until such fine and costs are paid,] and the fines so collected, if imposed by a circuit court or by the Criminal Court of Baltimore, following a de novo appeal from the District Court, shall be paid to the trustees of the said college and be added to the funds herein provided for carrying out the provisions of this subtitle.

82. Shipping nursery stock into State—In general.

When any trees, plants, shrubs, vines, buds or cuttings commonly known as nursery stock are shipped into this State from any other state or territory, or the District of Columbia to any nurseryman,
