

be the duty of [said] the sheriff [and constable] to apprehend him and carry him before a [justice of the peace of] commissioner of the District Court in the county.

26. Penalty for doing business without license.

If it shall appear to [said justice] the District Court judge that said hawker or peddler has bought, traded, bartered or sold or offered to buy, trade, barter or sell any goods, wares or merchandise, without license, he shall impose a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars nor less than twenty-five dollars to be recovered as other fines are recoverable [and to be paid to the clerk of the circuit court or Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore City].

95. Fraud in sale of gasoline, oil or grease in Allegany or Washington counties.

The boards of county commissioners in and for Allegany and Washington counties shall have authority to revoke licenses granted under § 32 to any firm, person or corporation maintaining a place in such counties for the sale to the public of gasoline, oil or grease for use in motor vehicles, should the holder of such license, or any of his or its agents and employees have been found guilty [before] in a [justice of the peace or in any criminal] court of competent jurisdiction of this State, of fraud in the sale of gasoline, oil or grease, or of obtaining money under false pretenses, or misrepresentation, or conspiracy to defraud arising out of the sale of any of such products. Any license which shall have been so revoked may in the discretion of the board of county commissioners be reissued after six months from the date of its revocation but not before. During the period for which such license is revoked, no other license shall be issued permitting the sale of gasoline, oil or grease at the same place of business where the board of county commissioners has reasonable grounds to believe that to issue such license would have the effect of defeating the purpose of this section. Any person, firm or corporation affected by the revocation or the withholding of the issuance of any license by the board of county commissioners under the provisions of this section shall have the right of appeal to the circuit court of the county in which the license is issued.

194. Administration and enforcement of subtitle; special provisions as to certain counties.

(1) Regulations in Harford and Cecil counties; domestic animals which disturb peace and quiet; vicious domestic animals.

(2) It is unlawful in Harford County for any person to own or keep a dog which disturbs the peace and quiet of any neighborhood in an inhabited area, or which is vicious and bites any person. Upon the sworn complaint before the [People's] District Court [of] sitting in Harford County of any two or more persons of different households alleging that a dog disturbs the peace and quiet of any neighborhood in an inhabited area of Harford County, or upon the sworn complaint of any one or more persons that a dog is vicious and has bitten any person, a summons shall issue to the owner or keeper of such dog to appear before the [People's] District Court sitting in Harford County. Upon proof that the dog disturbs the peace and quiet of any neighborhood in an inhabited area, or is vicious and has bitten
