§ 19. Review and approval or disapproval of film by Board; judicial determination; appeal; sale, exhibition, etc., of film without approval and license.

(b) Any person who shall sell, lease, lend, exhibit or use any film in this State without having first secured approval thereof and a license therefor in accordance with the procedures set forth in subsection (a) above, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction summarily before a [magistrate or the Municipal Court of Baltimore City] court, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars, nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, or to imprisonment for not more than thirty (30) days, or to be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the [magistrate or judge] court. Except, no employee of any individual, partnership, firm association, corporation, or other legal entity operating a theater which shows motion pictures, shall be subject to prosecution under this section if the employee is not an officer thereof and has no financial interest therein other than receiving salary and wages.

§ 20. Penalties in general.

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this article for which a specific penalty is not provided and is convicted thereof summarily before any [magistrate or justice of the peace] court, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than fifty dollars, for the first offense. For any subsequent offense the fine shall be not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars. [In default of payment of a fine and costs, the defendant shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the prison of the county, or in Baltimore City, where such offense was committed, for not less than ten days, and not more than thirty days. All fines shall be paid by the magistrate or justice of the peace to the Board, and by it paid into the State treasury.] All fines and costs shall be paid in accordance with Article 38, § 4.

§ 21. Particular penalties; appeal.

Any person who shall exhibit in public any misbranded film or film carrying official approval of the Board which approval was not put there by the action of the Board or any person who shall attach to or use in connection with any film or view which has not been approved and licensed by the Maryland State Board of Censors, any certificate or statement in the form provided by § 7 hereof or any similar certificate, statement or writing, or any person who shall exhibit any folder, poster, picture or other advertising matter, which folder, poster, picture or other advertising matter is obscene, indecent, sacrilegious, inhuman or immoral, or which tends to unduly excite or deceive the public, or containing any matter not therein contained when the approval was granted by the Board, shall be guilty of a
