

of the peace] before whom said person shall be tried, and in addition to said fine, shall be fined five dollars ($5.00) for each and every wild bird, wild animal, or fish illegally killed or found in possession, provided however, the additional penalty herein provided shall not apply to game birds and animals, wild waterfowl and deer, the penalties for which are those set forth in §§ 148, 152, 196 and 196A of this article. A second conviction within the same twelve-month period for a violation of any regulation adopted by the Commission or Director shall result in suspension of the violator's license for a period of twelve months from the date of such conviction. A copy of any regulations adopted by the Commission or Director shall be mailed to the clerk of the circuit court who shall make a record thereof and cause the same to be posted in front of the courthouse of the county.

§ 119. Director and wildlife officers to wear badge, return of wildlife officer's badge and commission.

The Director and wildlife officers shall, when acting in their official capacity, except when on detective duty, wear in plain view a metallic badge with the words "Director" or "wildlife officer" as the case may be, inscribed thereon, as furnished by the Director of this State. The metallic shield or badge provided for in this section is hereby declared to be the property of the State, and upon the termination of a commission of any wildlife officer he shall forthwith return the said shield or badge and commission to the Director. In case of the failure of said wildlife officer to comply with the provisions of this section, by returning immediately to the Director his badge and commission after notice has been given as provided by law, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined five dollars ($5.00) and costs by any [justice of the peace] District Court judge of the county or city in which said wildlife officer resides[; the said fine to be payable] pursuant to the provisions of article 26 § 155; however if the fine is imposed by the circuit court of any county or Criminal Court of Baltimore, as the case may be, the fine shall be paid to the State Game Protection Fund.

§ 121. Search warrant; search without warrant; confiscation.

(a) Issuance of warrant by [justice of the peace] District Court judge.—If the Director or any wildlife officer or police officer, [constable] or any other person has reason to believe that any person has in his possession, contrary to law, any game or fish as defined by law or any device being used in violation of the law, it shall be the duty of said officers to go before any [justice of the peace] District Court judge of the county or city in which the game, fish, or device being used unlawfully is supposed to be and make affidavit to that fact; said [justice] judge shall thereupon issue a search warrant against the person so complained of, directed to the officer making the affidavit for said warrant, commanding him to proceed at once and search for said game, fish, or device being used unlawfully, and, upon finding the same, to seize and take possession thereof and keep it until further order by the [justice] judge. The said officer shall read said warrant to the owner or person in whose possession said game, fish, or device being used unlawfully is supposed to be. Said warrant shall be returnable within [forty-eight hours] five days from the date thereof or within such earlier time as may be set forth in the search warrant for its return.
