

§ 122. Disposition of game, fish or unlawful device.

At the time mentioned in said warrant, said [justice] District Court judge shall proceed to hear and determine whether said game, fish, or device being used unlawfully was in the possession of the person or corporation contrary to law, and if the [said justice] judge shall find that said game, fish or device being used unlawfully was in the possession of the defendant contrary to law, then [said justice] he shall enter judgment against the defendant and order said game, fish, or device being used unlawfully turned over to the Director, who shall dispose of same as he may deem advisable for the best interest of the State; but if the [said justice] judge shall find that the possession of such game, fish, or device being used unlawfully was not contrary to law, then the judgment shall be that the same be returned to the person or corporation from whom the same was taken.

§ 123. Assistance from other officials.

All sheriffs, [constables and] police officers, and all officers appointed by the Department of Chesapeake Bay Affairs, shall assist in enforcing the game and fish laws of this State, and shall have all the powers of a wildlife officer. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the Sheriff of Baltimore County.

§ 130. Penalties.

Any resident found guilty of hunting any game protected by law without having first procured a license, except as herein provided, or for refusing to show said license when demanded by the Director or any wildlife officer, sheriff, [constable,] or other officer, or landowner or his representative, or failing to prominently display the license number as provided by law, or procuring a license under an assumed name, illegal address or making a false statement, or violating any of the other provisions of this subheading, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, before any [justice of the peace] District Court judge of the county or city where the offense was committed, shall be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20.00) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each and every offense [and shall stand committed to the county jail or the Baltimore City jail until such fine is paid but such imprisonment shall not exceed twenty days for each offense]. All fines and costs shall be paid in accordance with Article 38, § 4. Any person convicted for hunting without proper license and tag in possession while hunting, or using any other person's license or tag, said license and tag shall be confiscated and the person upon whom it was found and the licensee shall be disbarred from procuring a hunter's license for a period of one year.

Any nonresident of the State of Maryland found guilty of hunting any game protected by law or wild birds or wild animals without having first procured a hunting license, or for refusing to show said license when demanded by the Director or any wildlife officer, sheriff, [constable] or other officer or landowner or his representative, for failing to prominently display the license tag as provided by law, or procuring a license under an assumed name, illegal address or making false statement, or violating any of the other provisions of this subheading, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon con-
