

posed by the circuit court of any county or the Criminal Court of Baltimore, as the case may be, the fine when collected shall be appropriated for the use of the Commission of Forests and Parks and applied to the administration of this law.

§ 411 M. Punishment for violation.

Every act or omission designated as a misdemeanor in this subtitle, unless otherwise provided, shall be punishable before any [trial magistrate, people's] court of competent jurisdiction [or circuit court] of the county in which the offense is committed. [It shall be brought by warrant or indictment upon the oath or information of any member of the county commissioners, their duly designated agencies, or of any employee thereof.] Upon conviction thereof, the offender shall be subject to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00) or to thirty (30) days imprisonment in the county jail, or both, in the discretion of the court. If such an act or omission is of a continuing nature, or is persisted in, in violation of the provisions of this subtitle, or of any regulation enacted or decision made under the powers granted in this subtitle, each and every day during which such act or omission continues or is persisted in shall be deemed a separate misdemeanor.

§ 421. Same—Penalties.

Any person who shall violate or transgress the terms or requirements of any order or regulation issued and prescribed by the said State Board of Agriculture or its duly authorized officer under the authority of this subheading, or shall refuse to said officer or his assistants access to his premises, farms, stables, cars, sheds or pens, or shall resist said officer of the State Board of Agriculture or his assistants in applying any of the quarantine orders or regulations or shall conceal the fact that contagious or infectious disease exists on his premises, shall be subject to a fine of not more than one hundred nor less than ten dollars, which fine may be imposed by any [station house justice of the peace of the City of Baltimore, or any justice] court of any county where such offense may be committed.

§ 427. Unlawful disposal of animals affected.

Any person who shall sell or otherwise dispose of an animal which he knows, or has good reason to believe, is affected with any contagious or infectious disease, or has been exposed thereto within ninety days, or shall permit the same to pass over or upon any public highway, street, lane or alley, or to graze any unfenced lot or piece of ground without the consent of the said Board, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof by a court be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each animal so driven or exposed[; such fine may be imposed by any station house justice of the peace of the City of Baltimore, or any justice of any county where the offense shall be committed].

§ 434. Burial of animals dying with infectious disease.

All hogs and other domestic animals dying of any contagious or infectious disease shall be buried at a depth of at least three feet or be burned, at the discretion of the owner; and any person or persons permitting any dead hogs or any other domestic animals,
