

§ 429. Criminal penalties.

Any motor carrier who violates the provisions of §§ 422 or 423 of this subtitle shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall have the right to demand and receive a summons in the same manner as is provided in Article 66½, § ~~321~~ 16-109 of the Annotated Code of Maryland and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $20.00 nor more than $200.00 for each such offense. [The fine shall be collectible by the trial magistrate and/or judges of the peoples court and] Any fine imposed under this section shall be collected pursuant to the provisions of Article 26, § 155; however, if the fine is imposed by the circuit court of any county or the Criminal Court of Baltimore, as the case may be, the fine when collected shall be accountable to the Department of Motor Vehicles MOTOR VEHICLE ADMINISTRATION as provided for in Article 66½ of the Annotated Code of Maryland, as amended from time to time.

SECTION 64. And be it further enacted, That Sections 14 and 15 of Article 83 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1969 Replacement Volume), title, "Sales and Notices," subtitles "Exemption From Execution," and "Assignments of Claims to Nonresidents," be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

§ 14. Waiver of exemptions.

Whenever any defendant in an original contract or cause of action or by a subsequent contract in writing shall waive his claim to said exemption, the court [or the justice of the peace] entering a judgment upon any such contract or cause of action shall enter or cause to be entered among the docket entries of the same "right to exemption waived," or words to that effect, and a like entry shall be made on the back of any execution issued on said judgment; provided, however, that if such waiver shall be made as above stated and said entry shall be omitted, such defendant shall be estopped from demanding such exemption unless said court [or justice of the peace], for sufficient reasons, shall enter among the docket entries of the case that said waiver was and is void.

§ 15. Assignment or transfer for purpose of depriving debtor of rights under exemption laws.

It shall be unlawful for any person, being a citizen of this State, to assign or transfer any claim for debt against a resident of this State for the purpose of having the same collected by proceedings in attachment in courts [or before justices of the peace] outside of this State, or to send out of this State by assignment, transfer or other manner whatsoever, either for or without value, any claim or debt against any resident thereof for the purpose or with the intent to deprive such person of the right to have his personal earnings or property exempt from application to the payment of his debts, according to the provisions of this Code, where the creditor and debtor and the person or corporation owing the money intended to be reached by such proceedings are within the jurisdiction of the courts [or justices of the peace] of this State; and the person sending, assigning or transferring any such claim for the purpose or with the intent aforesaid shall be liable in an action of debt to the person from whom any such debt or claim shall have been collected by attachment or otherwise