

other personnel, employed in the improvement and preservation of waters and natural resources of the State of Maryland in the enforcement of laws for the preservation and protection of the waters and natural resources of the State of Maryland. And for the better enforcement of the provisions of this section, all persons authorized by law of this State to make arrests shall have the power and it shall be their duty to swear out process and to arrest and take into custody, with or without process, any person who may violate any of said provisions; provided, that no person shall be arrested without process for a violation not committed in the presence of some one of the aforesaid officials; and provided further, that whenever any arrest is made under the provisions of the said section the person so arrested shall be brought forthwith before a [magistrate,] judge[,], or court of the State for examination of the offenses alleged against him; and such [magistrate,] judge [.,] or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in cases of crimes against the State of Maryland.

SECTION 72. And be it further enacted, That Sections 44, 56, and 58 of Article 100, Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume), title "Work, Labor and Employment," subtitles, respectively, "Employment of Minors" and "Compulsory Work Law," be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

44. Failure or refusal to give information to inspector.

Any minor working in or in connection with any of the establishments or places or in any of the occupations mentioned in this subtitle, who refuses to give to the factory inspector or other authorized inspector his or her correct name, age and place of residence, shall be forthwith conducted by the inspector before the juvenile court if there be any juvenile court in the city or county where such child resides, or, if not, then before any court [or magistrate] having jurisdiction of offenses committed by children for examination and to be dealt with according to law.

56. General provisions applicable during existence of state of war.

Whenever, because of the existence of a state of war, the Governor determines that it is necessary, for the protection and welfare of the people of the State, that all able-bodied male persons, between the ages hereinafter mentioned, be employed in occupations carried on by the State, the counties or the City of Baltimore, or any of their agencies, or be employed in occupations carried on by private persons, firms or corporations, whether agricultural, industrial or otherwise, and which occupations, whether carried on by the State, the counties, the City of Baltimore, or by private employers, the Governor finds to be essential for the protection and welfare of the people of the State and the United States and also finds that the same cannot be carried on as the protection and welfare of the people of this State and of the United States require without resort to this subtitle, then the Governor shall be authorized, by proclamation, to require every able-bodied male person between 18 and 50 years of age, inclusive, within the State, not then or thereafter regularly or continuously employed or engaged in any lawful and useful business, occupation, trade or profession of any kind, to register forthwith his name, ad-
