CHAPTER 269

(House Bill 230)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 199 of Article 16 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1966 Replacement Volume), title "Chancery," subtitle "Trustee," to increase the amount of certain commissions to be allowed testamentary trustees and trustees of other trusts.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 199 of Article 16 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1966 Replacement Volume), title "Chancery," subtitle "Trustee," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

(a) Testamentary trustees, and trustees of other trusts whose duties comprise the collection and distribution of income from property held under trust settlements or the preservation and distribution of such property, shall in lieu of such commissions as have been heretofore allowed for such services by custom or by law, be entitled to the following commissions for their services in administering such trusts; subject to the provisions of any valid agreement determining their compensation and subject to be increased or diminished for sufficient cause by any court having jurisdiction over the administration of such trust, and the allowance of special commissions or compensation for services of an unusual nature, viz.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in the case of a trust having more than one trustee, [Accounting] accounting from the inception of such trust (or in the case of trusts, the administration of which has already begun before the enactment of this section, accounting from [June 1, 1951] July 1, 1972) a commission of six percent upon all income from real estate, ground rents and mortgages collected in each year; a commission of six percent upon the first [five] ten
