

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 577 of Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1971 Replacement Volume), title and subtitle "Crimes and Punishments," subheading "Trespass," be and hereby is repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

577.

Any person or persons who shall remain upon, enter upon or cross over the land, premises or private property, including boarding any boat or other marine vessel, of any person or persons in this State after having been duly notified by the owner or his agent not to do so shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof [before some justice of the peace in the county where such trespass may have been committed] be fined [by said justice of the peace] not [less than one, nor] more than one hundred dollars, [and shall stand committed to the jail of the county until such fine and costs are paid, provided, however, that the person or persons so convicted shall have the right to appeal from the judgment of said justice of the peace to the circuit court for the county where such trespass was committed, at any time within ten days after such judgment was rendered; and,] provided [further,] that nothing in this section shall be construed to include within its provisions the entry upon or crossing over any land when such entry or crossing is done under a bona fide claim or right of ownership of said land, it being the intention of this section only to prohibit any wanton trespass upon the private land of others. Provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall preclude the mayor and city council of Baltimore from enacting legislation making it unlawful or prohibitory to refuse, withhold from or deny to any person because of his race, creed, color or national origin any accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges of any place or places whose facilities, accommodations, services, commodities or use are offered to or enjoyed by the general public, either with or without charge.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1972.

Approved May 5, 1972.

CHAPTER 338

(House Bill 1377)

AN ACT to repeal Section 25(i) of Article 2B of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1968 Replacement Volume), title "Alcoholic Beverages," subtitle "Special and Temporary Licenses," and to enact new Section 25(i) in lieu thereof, to stand in the place of the section repealed, to provide for issuance of a special alcoholic beverage license in Garrett County under certain conditions.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 25(i) of Article 2B of the Annotated Code of Maryland
