

four terms of five months each shall be eligible for examination, upon all other terms and conditions provided for applicants for examination under the provisions of this subtitle. And provided, further, that the completion of the regular four years' course and graduation from a reputable literary college in which four years' course, two years were devoted to scientific and biological work in said literary college, shall be accepted by the State Board of Osteopathic Examiners as an equivalent for the first year in a recognized reputable osteopathic college. Provided, that the examinations of the first year of the said osteopathic college have been successfully passed, and accepted by the osteopathic college as dealing adequately with chemistry, toxicology, physics, physiology, anatomy and the biologic sciences. Such proof shall be made, if required, on affidavit.

From and after June 1, 1945, any person not heretofore authorized to practice podiatry in this State and desiring to enter upon such practice, shall file with the said Board of Podiatry Examiners, upon payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars, a written application for examination, together with satisfactory proof that the applicant is not less than [twenty-one] EIGHTEEN years of age, is of good moral character and has obtained a preliminary education of four years' instruction in a high school and two years' instruction in a college of liberal arts or sciences. The fact that such instruction has been received by the applicant must be evidenced by a certificate satisfactory to the said Board of Podiatry Examiners. Each applicant must also, before presenting him or herself for examination, be a graduate of a reputable and legally incorporated school or college of chiropody or podiatry, acceptable to the Board. Thereupon the said applicant shall be subjected to an examination.

(c-1) It is the intent of this subtitle that a husband may be liable for the support of a wife while she is an inmate of any such hospital; a wife, for a husband; a father or mother, or both, for a son or daughter under [twenty-one (21)] EIGHTEEN (18) years of age; and a son or daughter, or both, for a father or mother. However, no liability under this subtitle shall be placed upon any son or daughter for the support of a father or mother by whom the son or daughter was abandoned; and no liability under this subtitle shall be placed upon any husband or wife for the support of a spouse by whom the husband or wife has been abandoned. The State Board of Health and Mental Hygiene shall promulgate rules and regulations pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act in Article 41 of this Code, providing for a determination of what shall constitute abandonment in any of these exceptions to the liability for support. This determination as to what constitutes abandonment is subject to judicial review under the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act in Article 41 of this Code. The provisions of Section 97 of Article 27 of this Code have no effect on any determination of liability under this section.
