

33.

When any person, body politic or corporate shall propose to sell or barter, or dispose of, or offer for sale anything mentioned in Section 32, except spirituous or fermented liquors, he shall apply to the clerk of the circuit court for the county in which he proposes to carry on such selling or bartering, or disposing of goods, wares, chattels, or merchandise; or if he purposes to carry on such selling or bartering, or disposing of goods, wares, chattels or merchandise in the City of Baltimore, to the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for a license therefor; and a license to offer for sale issued by said clerk of Court of Common Pleas or by the clerk of the circuit court for any county shall be good and sufficient as a license to offer for sale in every part of the State; provided that such license shall not authorize the holder thereof to open or carry on any store or fixed place of business for such selling or offering for sale in any place other than in the place of business designated in said license and in the application therefor, it being intended hereby that a separate trader's license shall be obtained for each store or fixed place of business; but no license to trade or to sell spirituous or fermented liquors shall be issued by any clerk of a court to any person under the age of [twenty-one] EIGHTEEN years, without the special order of a judge of said court; and no judges shall give such special order to issue such license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors to a person under age of [twenty-one] EIGHTEEN years, unless upon the recommendation of at least ten respectable freeholders residents of the ward or district wherein said license would be operative; and whenever any license shall be issued to a minor, the said person under the age of [twenty-one] EIGHTEEN years shall be responsible for all contracts made in the prosecution of such business under such license and shall be liable to be sued therefor in any of the courts of this State; provided, however, that such responsibility shall in no manner affect or impair the responsibility of the parent of such infant under existing laws.

217.

(b) Every applicant for a license under the provisions of this subtitle shall apply for said license in writing upon blank forms prepared by the Commission, and every applicant for a real estate broker's or salesman's license shall be at least [twenty-one] EIGHTEEN years of age.

273.

For licensing as a landscape architect, evidence must be submitted that the applicant:

(1) Is at least [twenty-one] EIGHTEEN years of age;

(2) Has, before admission to the examination, completed the course of study in and been graduated from a college or school of landscape architecture approved by the Board. He shall also submit before admission to the examination evidence of actual practical experience in landscape architectural work of a grade and character satisfactory to the Board. Each complete year of study in such approved college or school of landscape architecture may be accepted in lieu of one year of such experience, and the applicant must submit evidence of sufficient additional acceptable experience to total six years of combined education and experience. In lieu of graduation from an approved college or school of landscape architecture, and the practical experience in addition thereto, an applicant may be admitted to the examination upon presenting evidence of at least eight years of actual, practical experience in landscape architectural work of a grade and character satisfactory to the Board.
