

for any refusal to take the test. Thus, the applicant would expressly agree, in pertinent part, "that the Motor Vehicle Administration shall suspend my license . . . upon receipt of a sworn statement from the detaining officer . . . that I . . . refused to take the chemical test for alcohol." Similar amendments would be made in §6-205.1(b), relating to the implied consent of nonresidents and unlicensed persons, and in §6-205.1(c), relating to the duty of a police officer to advise a suspect of the penalties for refusing to take the test. On the other hand, the language of §6-205.1(d), which contains the provisions relating to suspension hearings, would continue, albeit inconsistently, to imply that the suspension requirement is not absolute. Thus, for example, it would provide for a suspension only if it is concluded that the operator refused, "without reasonable cause", to take the test. This qualified language is incompatible with that elsewhere contained in the section and in the operator's contract with the State.

Because of its internal inconsistencies, I have decided to veto Senate bill 507.

Sincerely,

/s/ Marvin Mandel
Governor

Senate Bill No. 641 - Board of Boiler Rules

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 169 of Article 48 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1971 Replacement Volume), title "Inspections," subtitle "Boiler Safety Act," to transfer the Board of Boiler Rules to the Division of Labor and Industry.

June 1, 1973.

Honorable William S. James
President of the Senate
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21404

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17, of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed Senate Bill 641.

This bill places the Board of Boiler Rules within the Division of Labor and Industry.

Senate Bill 996, which was enacted by the General Assembly and signed by me on May 24, 1973, accomplishes the same purposes as Senate Bill 641, in addition to amending several other provisions of the Boiler Safety Act.

Therefore, it is unnecessary for me to sign Senate Bill 641.

Sincerely,

/s/ Marvin Mandel
Governor
