

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17, of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 403.

This bill provides for an increase in the salaries of police employees of the Maryland State Police.

Senate Bill 544, which was enacted by the General Assembly and signed by me on April 26, 1973, accomplishes the same purposes as House Bill 403.

Therefore, it is unnecessary for me to sign House Bill 403.

Sincerely,

/s/ Marvin Mandel
Governor

House Bill No. 424 - Forms of Acknowledgment

AN ACT to add new Section 4-204 to Article 21 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1972 Interim Supplement), [[title]] "Real Property," [[subtitle]] title "Requisites of Valid Instruments," to follow immediately after Section 4-203 thereof; to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 7-108 of the same Article, title, [[Code, and title, subtitle]] "Mortgages, Deeds of Trust and Vendor's Liens," to repeal Sections 6G (d) and 6G (e) of Article 33A of the Code (1972 Supplement), title "Eminent Domain", clarifying the law of real property as to acceptable forms of acknowledgment and as to incorporation of documents by reference, and validating certain instruments and repealing Sections enacted in Article 21.

June 1, 1973.

Honorable Thomas Hunter Lowe
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21404

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17, of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 424.

This bill establishes acceptable forms of acknowledgement and repeals subsection (d) and (e) of section 6G of Article 33A of the Annotated Code of Maryland.

Senate Bill 431, which was enacted by the General Assembly and signed by me on April 26, 1973 accomplishes the same purpose as House Bill 424 by establishing acceptable forms of acknowledgement.

Additionally, the Attorney General has advised me, in an opinion which is to be considered a part of this message, that the portion of House Bill 424 repealing subsection (d) and (e) of section 6G of Article 33A of the Annotated Code of Maryland is inoperative.
