EXECUTIVE ORDER OF OCTOBER 29, 1971

JOBS FOR VETERANS

WHEREAS, Maryland's Veterans have, in response to their Country's summons, made numerous personal sacrifices; and

WHEREAS, It is only right and just that these men who have risked their lives should not have to face a lifetime of economic deprivation as a result of their military service; and

WHEREAS, These economically disadvantaged veterans can be significantly aided in their search for employment by a commission composed of veterans who have themselves experienced the financial and social dislocations that often follow active military service; and

WHEREAS, A commission composed of veterans and concerned citizens would have ready access to numerous sources of employment, and could privately as well as officially operate to expand the job opportunities available for veterans;
