

MONTGOMERY COUNTY

Female inmates may be directed to perform housekeeping duties inside the female quarters of the detention center.

Sec. 13-3. Same--Same--Supervision; type to be performed.

The work provided for in Section 13-1 of this Code shall be assigned in the discretion of the correctional administrator but shall be performed under the supervision and direction of the Chief Administrative Officer or any road supervisor or other official who may be authorized by the Chief Administrative Officer to work inmates or any authorized member of the state police where the work is to be performed on state roads or property as provided in such section, and the correctional administrator of the detention center, upon the request of the Chief Administrative Officer or other persons duly authorized by him to make such request, is hereby authorized to deliver such inmate to the party designated. The work to be performed by such inmate may include every service necessary for the purpose of draining, grading, paving, repairing or maintaining such public streets or other public property or protecting life and property during a community disaster or emergency, and for the purpose of cleaning and maintaining the county detention center and preparing and serving food to the inmates therein.

Sec. 13-4. Same--Same--Custody; safekeeping; refusal to perform work.

The officer or other person having any inmate in charge shall have power and authority to compel such work as set out in this chapter, and shall be responsible for the safekeeping and return to the detention center of such inmate to the custody of the correctional administrator at the end of each day's work, which day's work shall be within the discretion of the officer or other person so supervising at the time, but shall not exceed ten hours' work for any one day. Any inmate so sentenced who shall refuse to perform the labor required of him shall incur the penalty of two days' additional imprisonment for every day he may so refuse, not to exceed a maximum of sixty days, and this provision shall be included in the sentence of the court by whom the same may be rendered; but no inmate shall be compelled to perform
