

COUNTY LOCAL LAWS

such labor whose health is not in a condition to allow the same, and the certificate of the physician to the detention center or other physician in the county shall be sufficient to excuse such labor.

Sec. 13-5. Same--Same--Aiding or permitting escape; penalty.

If any officer or other person, having any inmate in charge for the performance for such work as provided for in this chapter, connive at or by his wilful neglect permit the escape of any such inmate he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon indictment and conviction of such offense in the circuit court for the county, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or be confined in the county detention center for not less than thirty days nor more than six months, and be subject to the same penalty of work, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 13-6. Same--Same--Payment for work.

The director of finance is authorized to pay each inmate who is assigned to work under the provisions of this chapter at the end of his term at the rate of seventy-five cents per day for the actual days worked; provided, that such payment shall not be made for required housekeeping duties performed within an inmate's quarters or confinement area.

Sec. 13-7. Same--Same--Time off for good behavior.

Inmates who obey the rules and regulations of the county detention center as prescribed by the correctional administrator during the period of their confinement, and when in the correctional administrator's opinion such behavior is classified as "good conduct", shall be entitled to time off for good behavior at the end of their sentence at the rate of one day for each fourteen days of good conduct during such sentence.

Sec. 13-8. Same--Duties.

Any correctional administrator and any such assistants so appointed shall be responsible for the safekeeping, care and custody of all inmates in the county detention center from the time they are