

COUNTY LOCAL LAWS

(6) recruitment and utilization of volunteer services for Montgomery County programs;

(7) coordination of manpower planning; and

(8) coordination with other units of government and with private groups in the above areas of responsibility.

SECTION 2. Section 2-36, Chapter 2, title "Administration," of the Montgomery County Code 1965, as amended, is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

2-36. Powers and duties of director generally.

The director of finance is hereby authorized and directed under the general direction of the county executive:

(a) Audit of claims, vouchers, etc. To audit and preaudit all accounts, claims, demands or vouchers presented to the county for payment.

(b) Accounting system, etc. To prescribe the system of accounts, reports and expenditure and receipt documents to be used by all of the officers of the county government, except as the same may now or hereafter be prescribed by law.

(c) Financial records. To keep the financial records of the county government, including payroll.

(d) Investigations of county departments; reports. To make such investigation of the financial organization, activities and methods of procedure of the several county departments and establishments as he may be called upon to make by the county executive. In submitting any report, the director of finance may adopt as his report the report of any independent public accountants retained by the county to the extent that the form and content on the report of such independent public accountants comply with the requirements relating to the report being submitted by the director of finance.

(e) Supervision of Purchasing Office. To supervise the functions of the purchasing office as
