record and his medical record, including the opinion of the Medical Examiner, and all other pertinent information must be transmitted to the County Personnel Board. The decision of the County Executive or the Chief Administrative Officer or the administrative head of a participating agency may be appealed by the member to the County Personnel Board whose decision shall be final. Appeal procedures provided in the Personnel Regulations shall be followed in making and handling such appeals. This type of retirement shall not become effective in the event the employee does not appeal, without the action of the County Personnel Board whose decision shall be final. (See Section 94-67(h), Administrative disability retirement.)

(i) Administrative retirement on or after normal retirement date. The County Executive or Chief Administrative Officer only may retire immediately and without cause any County employee member only under his supervision who has reached his normal retirement date, if in his judgment such action is justified and demonstratively in the best interest of the County service and his administration. The decision of the County Executive or the Chief Administrative Officer may be appealed by the County employee member to the County Personnel Board whose decision shall be final. Appeal procedures provided in the Personnel Regulations shall be followed in making and handling such appeals. This type of retirement shall not become effective in the event the employee does not appeal, without action of the County Personnel Board whose decision shall be final. Any such retirement effective May 1, 1970 or thereafter shall be considered a separation from the County service in good standing and without prejudice. Any such retired member who retires May 1, 1970 or thereafter shall receive a pension commencing immediately and the provisions of Section 94-69(c) "Discontinued Service Pension of Employee Members" shall be applicable in determining the amount of such pension. In addition, any such member who is retired on or after November 1, 1971 under the provisions of Section 94-62(i) "Administrative Retirement on or After Normal Retirement Date" shall be credited with one percent (1%) service recognition factor for each five years of actual county service up to thirty (30) years, that shall be added to the above computations and also the amount of sick leave creditable for retirement purposes shall be added thereto.
