

COUNTY LOCAL LAWS

(j) Administrative retirement on or after elective early retirement date. The County Executive or the Chief Administrative Officer only may retire immediately and without cause any County employee who has attained his elective early retirement date and who is under his supervision if in his judgment such action is justified and demonstratively in the best interest of the County service and his administration. In such retirement the early retirement reduction factors shall not apply and the County employee member shall receive a pension, commencing immediately equal to fifty percent (50%) of his final earnings or equal to two percent (2%) of his final earnings multiplied by his actual years of credited service whichever is greater. In addition any such member who is retired on or after November 1, 1971 under the provisions of Section 94-62(j) "Administrative retirement on or after elective early retirement date" shall be credited with one percent (1%) service recognition factor for each five years of actual County service up to thirty (30) years, that shall be added to the above computations and also the amount of sick leave creditable for retirement purposes shall be added thereto. The decision of the County Executive or the Chief Administrative Officer may be appealed by the County employee member to the County Personnel Board whose decision shall be final. Appeal procedures provided in the Personnel Regulations shall be followed in making and handling such appeals. This type of retirement shall not become effective, in the event the employee does not appeal, without action of the County Personnel Board whose decision shall be final. Such retirement shall be considered as a separation from the County service in good standing and without prejudice. There shall be included in the County budget any additional amount to pay such pension.

SECTION 4. Section 63(a), title "Percent of member contributions" is hereby amended to read as follows:

(a) Percent of member contributions. The percent of member contributions shall be determined in accordance with the following:

(1) Each member entering the retirement system on or after August 15, 1965 shall have a member
