

COUNTY LOCAL LAWS

(c) Any person who has been subjected to any act of discrimination prohibited under Section 77-14 of this Article shall be deemed to have been denied a civil right and shall be entitled to sue for damages, injunction or other civil relief including reasonable attorney's fees; provided, however, that no suit shall be commenced until forty-five (45) days after a complaint alleging such an act of discrimination has been filed with the Commission Panel pursuant to Section 77-15 and provided, further, that if any proceedings with respect to such complaint are still pending before the Executive Secretary or the Commission Panel, the court may, in its discretion, stay proceedings before it for not more than sixty (60) days pending resolution of the complaint. In addition to any judicial enforcement provided elsewhere in this Article, in any case in which the Commission Panel determines that the person complained against has violated this Article, the Commission Panel may certify the matter to the County Attorney to seek any available state or federal judicial relief in any court of competent jurisdiction on behalf of the person subjected to such violation, and, where appropriate on behalf of residents of Montgomery County similarly situated.

SECTION 7. Effective date. This Act shall take effect on the 76th day following the date on which it becomes law.
