

PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY

primary or general election, any act enabling the County to borrow money to finance capital projects, and any act or resolution pledging the full faith and credit of the County or any other guarantee by the County for any bonds to be issued by or for the benefit of any state or bi-county agency or district, except for school construction bonds or obligations and except for bonds or obligations for the benefit of the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority. For purposes of this subsection, any item or items of the adopted annual capital budget may be so referred separately and individually by generic class or designation. Unless the act or resolution so referred is approved by a majority of the voters at the referendum, the Council shall have no power to enact an authorizing ordinance pursuant to Section 827 of the Charter to carry into effect the terms of the act or resolution so referred, and shall have no power to pledge the full faith and credit of the County or any other guarantee of the County for bonds to be issued by or for the benefit of any state or bi-county agency or district. Any ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds pursuant to Section 827 of the Charter shall be referred to the referendum of the voters as provided in this sub-section and shall not be effective unless approved by a majority of the voters, if such authorization is for the purpose of providing for borrowing to finance a capital project authorized by any law enacted prior to the effective date of this amendment which law has not been approved at referendum.

(b) In petitioning for the referendum of this amendment, it is the intent of the undersigned registered voters that every sub-section, sentence, clause, or phrase shall be separable, that the invalidity or inapplicability of any sub-section, sentence, clause, or phrase shall not serve to render invalid or inapplicable any other sub-section, sentence, clause, or phrase, and that the approval of this amendment shall repeal any portion of the Charter or any other law which is inconsistent herewith to the extent of any inconsistency."

AFFIDAVIT

I, the undersigned registered voter in Prince George's County, being first duly sworn (or affirmed), state that I am the person who procured the signatures