

351.

(d) Corporations formed during World War II; partnership application and license to state names and addresses of partners. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section a corporation which was formed during World War II to carry on the business of any person who was licensed as a funeral director and who was engaged in the business of funeral director or embalmer at the time of his induction into the armed forces of the United States during World War II, may continue to hold a license under this subtitle and to practice the occupation of funeral director and embalmer in this State, so long as the holding and practice are continuous, and so long as any such corporation is owned and operated by members of the immediate family of the person who was so inducted into the armed forces during World War II, including a father, mother, HUSBAND OR WIDOWER, wife or widow, brother, sister and/or children, the corporation is entitled to all the rights and privileges of a licensee under this subtitle. An application made by a partnership or a copartnership under this subtitle shall state the names and addresses of the persons composing the partnership or copartnership and a license issued to the partnership or copartnership also shall state these names and addresses.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1973.

Approved April 10, 1973.

-----

CHAPTER 9

(Senate Bill 346)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 700(b) of Article 66C of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1970 Replacement Volume), title "Natural Resources", subtitle "Oysters and Clams", to repeal the license fee exemption granted to members of a particular sex who want a tonging license.

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That Section 700(b) of Article 66C of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1970 Replacement Volume), title "Natural Resources", subtitle "Oysters and Clams", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

700.

(b) [No woman and no] NO person more than sixty-four years of age shall be required to pay the license fee specified in subsections (d) and (g) of this section.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1973.

Approved April 10, 1973.

-----