

(7) Minimum Amount to Be Spent for Other Current Expenses. Neither a county board of education or the Board of Education of Baltimore City may spend for other current expenses less than $71 for each pupil enrolled as of September 30 of the current year, plus $30 for each additional pupil enrolled in excess of the number enrolled on September 30 of the preceding year.

(8) Aid Received under Article 66 1/2 Not to Be Duplicated. Aid calculated under the provisions of this subsection shall not duplicate any aid received under the provisions of § 90 of Article 66 1/2.11

SECTION 2. BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Sections 128 and 129 of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1969 Replacement Volume and 1972 Supplement), title "Public Education," subtitle "Chapter 9. Finance and Reports," be and they are hereby repealed, and that Sections 42, 52(b), 57(c), 68(c), 68(g), 112(b), 112(c), 117(c), 117(g), 124(b), 124(c), 127, 130(b) and 131 of said article and title, subtitles "Chapter 4. County Boards of Education," "Chapter 5. Superintendent of Schools," "Chapter 8. Teachers," and "Chapter 9. Finance and Reports," respectively, be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, and all to read as follows:

42.

The county boards of education shall have authority to establish public schools when, in their judgment, it is advisable to do so, subject to the approval of the State Superintendent of Schools, according to the bylaws, rules and regulations of the State Board of Education. Upon approval by the State Superintendent of Schools, any elementary or high school, or any school or combination of any grades thereof, so established, shall become a part of the State [foundation] program of public education as provided for elsewhere in this article. The county board of education, with the advice of the superintendent of schools, shall determine the geographical attendance areas for all such schools established under the provisions of this section.

52.

(b) Should the two county boards of education fail to agree as to the amount of maintenance and support each should give to such schools, the State Superintendent of Schools shall decide the matter, provided that the receiving county is granted one hundred per cent (100%) of the cost of educating said child in the receiving county. The receiving county shall receive, as a minimum for each pupil from the adjoining county who attends such schools the basic foundation State aid per pupil authorized by Section [128] 128A of this article for the adjoining county or for the receiving county, whichever is greater.

57.

(c) Salaries paid superintendents who are employed after July 1, 1964, shall be shared in by the State only when the superintendent has met the full requirements in academic and professional training, namely, graduation from a standard college or university plus two years of graduate work at a recognized university, including public school administration, supervision, and methods of teaching. Boards of education may, in their discretion, pay to a superintendent an annual salary in excess of the schedule provided in this section, but [the State shall not share in the payment of said excess.] SUCH EXCESS SHALL NOT BE INCLUDED IN THE BASIC CURRENT EXPENSES TO BE SHARED BY THE STATE.
