

Supplement), title "Unemployment Insurance Law," subtitles, respectively, "Contributions" and "Definitions," be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

8.

(c)(2) The Executive Director shall maintain an experience-rating record for each employer. Nothing in this article shall be construed to grant to any employer or to individuals performing services for him prior claims or rights to the amounts paid by the employer into the fund.

Except as required by paragraph (1)(1) (I) of this subsection, benefits paid shall be charged against employer experience-rating records as hereafter specified.

If the claimant earned 75 percent or more of his base period wages from the principal base period employer, all regular benefits and one half of any extended benefits paid to such individual shall be charged against the experience-rating record of his principal base period employer (as defined in paragraph (1)(9) (9) of this subsection). If the claimant earned less than 75 percent of his base period wages from the principal base period employer, all regular benefits and one half of any extended benefits paid to such individuals shall be charged on a pro rata basis to all base period employers. The percentage of the charge to each base period employer shall be in the same proportion as the amount of wages paid to the claimant by each such employer is to the total amount of wages received by the claimant during the base period, and shall be computed as a whole number without decimals.

20.

(g)(7) After December 31, 1971 "employment" shall include:

(ii) Notwithstanding §§ 20(g)(2), 20(g)(5) and 20(g)(8)(vi), all service performed after December 31, 1971, by an officer or member of the crew of an American vessel or an American aircraft on or in connection with that vessel or that aircraft IF the operating office from which the operations of that vessel or aircraft operating on navigable waters is within this State, or the operation of that aircraft within this State, or the operation of that vessel or such aircraft within and without the United States, is ordinarily and regularly supervised, managed, directed and controlled, within this State.

For the purposes of this subsection, "American vessel" means any vessel documented or numbered under the laws of the United States. It also means any vessel which is neither documented or numbered under the laws of the United States nor documented under the laws of any foreign country, if its crew performs service solely for one or more citizens or residents of the United States or corporations organized under the laws of the United States or of any state. "American aircraft" means an aircraft registered under the laws of the United States.

20.

(g)(7)(iv) As used in the first two paragraphs of (iii) of this subsection:

"Institution of higher education," means [as] AN educational institution which admits as regular students only individuals having a certificate of graduation from high school, or the recognized equivalent of such a certificate; is legally authorized in this State to provide a program of education beyond high school; provides an educational program for which it awards a bachelor's or higher degree, or provides a program which is acceptable for full credit toward such a degree, a program of