

is claimed, and submit a statement to the participating municipal corporation for such amount, such computation to be based upon the compensation actually received by the official from the municipal corporation during the period for which service is to be credited. The participating municipal corporation is authorized and directed forthwith to pay the said amount to the retirement system or to place it in the next ensuing budget for prompt payment when that budget becomes effective. The board of trustees is authorized and directed to include any amount due from the State in the appropriation allowed by the next ensuing State budget.

Any such official who receives membership service credit for service rendered to the State or to a participating municipal corporation under the provisions of this subsection shall pay to the retirement system by single payment, within such period of time as may be determined by the board of trustees, the contributions, with interest, which he would have paid had he been a member of the retirement system but withdrew. Provided, however, that any such member may waive the payment of any or all such contributions, in which case upon retirement any SERVICE RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE, ANY ordinary disability retirement allowance or any allowance due to nonreappointment or nonreelection to any office payable to such official, shall be reduced by the actuarial equivalent of those contributions which he had not paid, with interest to date of retirement.

Provided further that any desk officer or employee of either house of the General Assembly, who was receiving an annual salary as compensation for such employment as of February 1, 1961, and who previously served as a desk officer or employee of either house of the General Assembly and received per diem compensation for such previous service, shall be entitled to prior service credit equal to four years for any four-year term of a General Assembly during which such previous service was rendered.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, any member of the retirement system who had previously served as an elected or appointed official shall be entitled to receive credit for the period of such prior service upon making in a single payment, within such period of time as may be determined by the board of trustees, the contributions, with interest, which he would have paid on behalf of such service.

At the time of retirement as a judge in one of the listed courts, the member is eligible to receive benefits from both the retirement system and the Judges' Pension System. Upon retirement, no salaried State employee, judge, legislator, or executive official may receive benefits under more than one pension system for the same period of service.

(5a) Notwithstanding any provision of general or local law to the contrary, any member of a local retirement system which is operated on an actuarial basis, as described in § 31 of this article, who is on leave of absence without pay from employment with a political subdivision of the State of Maryland in order to serve as a member of the General Assembly shall, upon application, receive service credit in the local retirement system for the period of such absence required for service in the General Assembly. In order to receive the benefit of the service credits provided under this subsection the member shall contribute into the local retirement system, at his usual rate of contribution based upon the salary of the position from which he is on leave without pay to serve as a member of the General Assembly. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller of the State to make appropriate certifications as to the service credits to which such members shall be entitled. The application of this subsection shall be limited to persons who are members of the General Assembly from and after January 15, 1963.
