

such actuarial reduction of benefits, as set forth in this subsection shall be calculated from age sixty, or from the age at which the member would have rendered thirty-five years of creditable service, or would have attained age fifty-five and would have rendered thirty years of creditable service, whichever calculation provides the least actuarial reduction.

(e) (1) Notwithstanding anything in this subtitle to the contrary, if the retirement allowance consisting of the annuity resulting from the member's regular contributions and the pension determined in accordance with paragraphs (b) and (c) above is less than one-sixtieth of average final compensation for each year of creditable service, an additional pension equal to the difference between such allowance shall be payable; except that as to any such member who contributed on the basis of retirement at age 65 under the provisions of § 14 (1) (b), and as to any elected or appointed official or employee who waived the payment of such contributions as provided in §§ 3 (5) and 9 (7), and any member who elects to discontinue contributions in accordance with the provisions of § 14 (1) (b), the additional pension so provided herein shall be reduced by the actuarial equivalent of those contributions which he had not paid, with interest to date of retirement; provided, that if the member who has not attained the age of sixty at the time of retirement has rendered less than thirty-five years of creditable service, the additional pension equal to the difference between such allowance shall be reduced on an actuarial equivalent basis, unless the member has attained the age of fifty-five and has rendered at least thirty years of creditable service.

(2) The annuity provided as a result of voluntary contributions permitted under this subtitle and its amendments shall be payable and shall not be used in determining the additional pension, if any, payable under this subdivision, nor in determining the disability pension under § 11, subsection (5).

(3) The payment of the additional pensions provided herein shall be provided for in the budget bill submitted to the General Assembly by the Governor and on receipt of the warrant of the Comptroller, annual payments shall be made by the Treasurer of the State of Maryland to the aforesaid retirement system of the amounts required to meet the current disbursements for such additional pensions.

(4) The additional pensions provided herein shall be provided for the employees of municipal corporations upon the approval of the legislative body of any such municipal corporation participating in the Employees' Retirement System.

(5) Any member of the system who made additional voluntary contributions under § 14 (1) (e) of this article may withdraw the additional amount of contributions with interest, provided that refund is requested within one year after July 1, 1963.

(6) The provisions of subsection (3) (e) herein apply to members who retired prior to June 30, 1962, as well as to those who retire after that date.]

(5) Upon retirement for ordinary disability a member shall receive a service retirement allowance if he has attained the age of 60 OR HAS COMPLETED THIRTY YEARS OF CREDITABLE SERVICE, otherwise he shall receive an ordinary disability retirement allowance which shall [consist of:

(a) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at the time of retirement; and

(b) A pension which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to one sixtieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his creditable service, if such retirement allowance exceeds one quarter of his average final compensation; otherwise a pension which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to one quarter of his
