

with an "off-road vehicle".

Subsection (e) is new language derived from Article 66C, section 132(e) of the Code.

Subsection (f) presently appears as the second and third sentences of section 132(g), as amended by Chapter 823, H.B. 975, Acts of 1973. New language is added to indicate that shooting from paved and unpaved roads is prohibited in Kent and Queen Anne's counties and in the Hanover municipal waterworks.

Subsection (g) presently appears as the first paragraph of Article 66C, section 132(l). New language, derived from the third paragraph of this section, is added for organizational purposes.

Subsection (h) presently appears as the second paragraph of Article 66C, section 132(l).

The third paragraph of section 132(l) is proposed for deletion since its substance presently appears as proposed subsection (f). The last paragraph is proposed for deletion in light of the uniform penalty provision of this title.

Subsection (i) presently appears as Article 27, section 154 of the Code and is set forth here for organizational purposes. The reference to "game, bird, or creature" is proposed for deletion and "bird, mammal, amphibian, or reptile" is substituted therefor to maintain consistency with the wildlife classifications used throughout this title. The last sentence is proposed for deletion in light of the uniform penalty provision of this title.

Subsection (j) is new language derived from Article 1A, section 30 of the Code and set forth here for organizational purposes. Article 1A, section 30 relates to "birds and mammals" and consequently, refers to domestic birds and mammals. The provisions of this subsection, however, are restricted to wild birds and mammals due to the nature