

EXCEPT WILD WATERFOWL OR FUR-BEARING MAMMALS, FOR SHIPMENT WITHIN OR OUTSIDE THE STATE.

(B) EXPORT OF WILD WATERFOWL. - A PERSON DESIRING TO EXPORT WILD WATERFOWL FROM THE STATE SHALL SHIP THEM IN THE OPEN, TIED BY HEAD OR FEET AND TAGGED ACCORDINGLY, OR IN A CONTAINER, SLATTED SO THAT THE BIRDS ARE VISIBLE. A PERSON MAY NOT EXPORT FROM THE STATE IN ONE WEEK MORE THAN THE PRESCRIBED BAG LIMIT OF WETLAND GAME BIRDS HE KILLS.

(C) SHIPMENT OF NONGAME BIRDS PROHIBITED. - A PERSON ACTING AS A COMMON CARRIER, OR AN OFFICER, AGENT, OR EMPLOYEE OF A COMMON CARRIER, MAY NOT SHIP, CARRY, TAKE, OR TRANSPORT ANY NONGAME BIRD WITHIN OR OUTSIDE THE STATE.

REVISOR'S NOTE: Subsection (a) presently appears as the first provision of Article 66C, section 134(a) of the Code. The provision prohibiting shipping game beyond county limits is proposed for deletion because it is obsolete due to the abolition of the county hunter's license. New language derived from Article 66C, section 134(b) is added for organizational purposes. The reference to "two days' bag limit" is proposed for deletion and the phrase "prescribed bag limit" is substituted. This permits the department to regulate the possession limit. The phrase "without any county, city or town" is proposed for deletion and "within or outside the State" is substituted therefor to better express the apparent legislative intent which is to prohibit the export of wetland game birds.

Subsection (b) presently appears as the last provision of Article 66C, section 134(a). New language derived from section 134(c) is added for organizational purposes.

Subsection (c) presently appears as Article 66C, section 139 of the Code and is set forth here for organizational purposes. The reference to "resident or migratory wild" nongame birds is proposed for deletion because the term nongame birds by definition are either resident or migratory wild birds. The phrase "except as
