

found in the printed Session Laws, not in the Code. This section proposed the transfer of such a bond bill from the Code to the Session Laws. The substance of the provision is not changed in any way.

SECTION 5. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Section 5(V) of Article 25A, Annotated Code of Maryland (1973 Repl. Vol., as added to or amended by legislation enacted at the 1973 regular session of the General Assembly), title "Chartered Counties of Maryland", subtitle "Express Powers", Section 221A(a) of Article 41 of the Code (1971 Repl. Vol. and 1972 Supplement, as added to or amended by legislation enacted at the 1973 regular session of the General Assembly), title "Governor - Executive and Administrative Departments", subtitle, "The Department of Licensing and Regulation", and Section 277(a) of Article 56 of the Code (1972 Repl. Vol. and 1972 Supplement, as added to or amended by legislation enacted at the 1973 regular session of the General Assembly), title "Licenses", subtitle "Landscape Architects", be and each is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

Article 25A

(V) Recreation

To enact local laws providing for the development and administration of a comprehensive recreational program including the construction, equipment and use of park, community center, and recreational buildings and facilities, the acquisition of sites therefor, and the furnishing of recreational and other municipal services in connection therewith; AND TO EXERCISE ANY POWER OR AUTHORITY CONFERRED BY THE PROVISIONS OF ARTICLE 25 OF THIS CODE, IN THE SUBTITLE "PUBLIC RECREATION AND PARKS".

REVISOR'S NOTE: Section 3 of this bill transfers statutes dealing with "Public Recreation and Parks" from Article 66C to Article 25. The preceding amendment to Article 25A makes clear the continuing application of these provisions to chartered counties. A new section of Article 23A, contained in Section 5 of this Bill, does the same with
