REVISOR'S NOTE: Section 2 of this Bill repeals certain provisions of Article 41 pertaining to the Department of Natural Resources. They are restated in the Natural Resources Article (Section 1). Other revision bills will handle in like fashion statutes dealing with several other principal departments. It thus seems useful to insert in Article 41 (for eventual incorporation in the State Government Article) a single comprehensive listing of the principal departments. New Section 2A, above, is arranged in subsections to facilitate future amendment.

SECTION 7. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That nothing in this Act affects the term of office of an appointed member of any board, commission, committee or other agency or unit. A person who is a member of such a unit on the effective date of this Act shall remain a member for the balance of the term to which he was appointed, unless he sooner dies, resigns, or is removed pursuant to the provisions of law.

REVISOR'S NOTE: Section 7 is intended to make it clear that no board, commission, or committee affected by the Act is abolished. Therefore, no terms of members become vacant; instead, persons in office on the effective date of the act remain in office for the balance of the term. This is constitutionally required, in any event; see Art. XVI, § 2 of the Constitution.

SECTION 8. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the continuity of every other department, board, commission or agency affected by this Act, and not abolished by it, is retained. The personnel, records, files, furniture and fixtures and other properties and all appropriations, credits, assets, liabilities, and obligations of each retained agency are continued as the personnel, records, files, furniture, fixtures,
