

added to indicate that the labeling must show the contents, the intended use, and specify that the product is for animal use only in order to protect the product user. The only other changes made are in style.

SEC. 3-211. SALE, DONATION, AND DISTRIBUTION OF BIOLOGICAL PRODUCTS PROHIBITED; EXCEPTIONS.

(A) REGULATIONS FOR SALE OF VACCINE, ETC.

A PERSON MAY NOT SELL, DONATE, OR DISTRIBUTE ANY BIOLOGICAL PRODUCT CONTAINING LIVING ORGANISMS EXCEPT AS PROVIDED BY THIS SECTION.

(E) SALE BY PHYSICIAN OR VETERINARIAN PERMITTED UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS.

A DOCTOR OF MEDICINE OR A VETERINARIAN LICENSED TO PRACTICE IN THE STATE MAY ORDER ANY BIOLOGICAL PRODUCT IF HE SUBMITS TO THE VENDOR OR DISTRIBUTOR A STATEMENT CONTAINING THE NAME AND ADDRESS OF THE OWNER OF THE ANIMAL TO BE TREATED, THE OBJECT OF THE TREATMENT, AND A STATEMENT OVER THE DOCTOR'S OR VETERINARIAN'S SIGNATURE THAT HE IS PERSONALLY RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PROPER USE OF THE BIOLOGICAL PRODUCT.

(C) RECORDS AND REPORT OF ORDER.

THE VENDOR OR DISTRIBUTOR SHALL KEEP A RECORD OF THE ORIGINAL OF THE ORDER AND SHALL FORWARD IMMEDIATELY A COPY TO THE SECRETARY. THE PERSON WHO ORDERS THE PRODUCT SHALL REPORT THE RECEIPT OF THE MATERIAL TO THE SECRETARY AND SUBMIT A LIST OF THE ANIMALS HE PROPOSES TO TREAT, GIVING THEIR AGES AND AN IDENTIFYING DESCRIPTION OF EACH.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section presently appears as Art. 66C, §455 of the Code. In subsection (a) the present reference to "vaccines" is proposed for deletion in light of the definition of "biological product" in §3-201(b).

The present reference to "graduate veterinarian" also is proposed for deletion as unnecessary. Any veterinarian licensed by the State Board must be graduated from an accredited veterinary school.