

In subsection (b) new language is added to indicate at the outset that the doctor of medicine or veterinarian must submit a report to the vendor or distributor. The present reference to a veterinarian who has been admitted to practice in the State is proposed for deletion and the phrase "licensed to practice" is substituted to better express the legislative intent.

The present reference to the director of the laboratory is proposed for deletion and a reference to the Secretary is substituted therefor. See the revisor's note to §3-203. The specific references to "tuberculosis" and "glanders" are proposed for deletion because they are unnecessary. This subtitle regulates all biological products used for immunizations against livestock diseases.

In subsection (c), the last phrase is proposed for deletion because the subsection is revised to require the report of "an identifying description" of each animal. This language, which substitutes an objective test, is added because the department receives the reports and not the State Veterinarian.

The only other changes made are in style.
