

intrastate commerce livestock, their carcasses, parts of them, or meat food products capable of use as human food is omitted in light of the definition of "official establishment" set forth in §4-101(s).

Subsection (b) presently appears as the first sentence of Art. 66C, §470F(e) of the Code.

A reference to "meat" is added because meat is inspected at official establishments.

Subsection (c) presently appears as the last two sentences of Art. 66C, §470F(e) of the Code. New language is added in subsection (c) to indicate explicitly that the appellant bears the cost of the "appeal inspection".

Subsection (d) is new language derived from Art. 66C, §470F(d) of the Code.

The only other changes made are in style.

SEC. 4-109. OPERATIONS NOT SUBJECT TO INSPECTION REQUIREMENT; EXCEPTIONS.
