

ESTABLISHMENT ENGAGED IN SLAUGHTERING OR PROCESSING SOLELY FOR INTRASTATE COMMERCE POULTRY AND POULTRY PRODUCTS CAPABLE OF USE AS HUMAN FOOD AND INSPECTED UNDER THIS SUBTITLE.

REVISOR'S NOTE: Art. 43, §197-4(v) is proposed for deletion and new language derived from Art. 43, §197-7 is added to indicate explicitly the definition of an official establishment. Under the present statute an official establishment is one where the State inspection takes place. Art. 43, §197-7 provides that State inspection occurs only at establishments slaughtering or preparing poultry capable of use as human food solely for intrastate commerce. Consequently, this definition to be complete must include both concepts. Revised §4-206, derived from present §197-12, sets forth the types of establishments not subject to inspection, thus indicating these are not official establishments.
