REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived in part from Art. 48, §66(b) and added to clarify the use of this term in this Title. The present reference in Art. 48, §66(b) to a person who buys from a "producer" is omitted because this is a confusing and ambiguous term. It could be used to refer to the individual who actually practices tobacco husbandry or it could refer to the person, firm, or corporation who rents land and renders services to a grower in return for a share of the crop. Both the grower or landowner, however, can own tobacco and sell it. Consequently, this definition is revised to refer to the owner of tobacco.
