

requires the Committee to determine whether continuation of a district is administratively "practicable" is proposed for deletion because the words "feasible" and "practicable" are synonymous. New language derived from the last sentence of Art. 66C, §101(b) is added for organizational purposes. In subsection (c) (2) the present reference to land occupiers "eligible to vote..." is omitted because it is assumed that any land occupier who votes is eligible to vote. The only other changes made are in style.
