

(J) EXPENSES.

IF THE SHERIFF INCURS EXPENSES FOR THE PURPOSE OF CONSERVING OR PROTECTING THE SEIZED PROPERTY, HE SHALL BE REIMBURSED FOR THE EXPENSE.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This is the substance of Art. 36, §§ 25, 25A, 25B, 26, 26A, 26B, 26C, 26D, and 26E, as enacted by Ch. 48, Acts of 1973.

The Sheriff's fees are presented in a tabular form for the purpose of clarity.

GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE:

The Commission to Revise the Annotated Code in compiling Title 7 of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article, concluded that certain provisions of present law originally allocated to Title 7 are repetitious, obsolete, or more properly allocable elsewhere. Accordingly, these provisions are not embodied in Title 7. Their proposed treatment is as follows:

| Section in Code: | Treatment: | Comment:   |
|-------------------------|-------------------|---|
| Art. 17, §5             | Transfer          | Except provisions dealing with docket entries which are incorporated in §7-202, all provisions of this section are allocated to Art. 47.                                    |
| Art. 17, §34            | Transfer          | Except provisions dealing with recording of a final decree of divorce which are incorporated in §7-202, all provisions of this section are allocated to Family Law Article. |
