TITLE 8. JURIES.

SUBTITLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

SEC. 8-101. DEFINITIONS.

(A) IN GENERAL.

IN THIS TITLE THE FOLLOWING WORDS HAVE THE MEANINGS INDICATED.

(B) "CIRCUIT COURT OF A COUNTY" INCLUDES THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR A COUNTY AND THE SUPREME BENCH OF BALTIMORE CITY.

(C) "COURT" MEANS A COURT IN WHICH A JURY TRIAL MAY BE HELD.

REVISOR'S NOTE: These definitions are new language and are added to avoid repetition, since most of the sections in this title apply uniformly throughout the State. The definition of "circuit court of a county" in subsection (b) applies primarily to the sections in subtitle 2 dealing with juror selection. In Baltimore City, the Supreme Bench qua Supreme Bench, manages the juror selection process, while in the counties this is done by the circuit courts.

The definition of "court" in subsection (c) applies primarily to those sections dealing with the empaneling of a jury in a particular case.

No definition of "county" as including Baltimore City is necessary. Art. 1, §14 defines county as including Baltimore City, and therefore no additional definition is required in this title.
