

duties in the circuit administrative judge and the county administrative judges (see, e.g. Rules 1200 c, 1200 d, and 1202) whereas the statute contemplates the handling of many administrative tasks by the administrator who is responsible to all the judges of the circuit, not to the circuit administrative judge.

To the extent of any inconsistency, the 1972 statute has in turn superseded the rules. This is clearly a recent expression of legislative policy, and the revisor does not, therefore, propose any change in this policy. The only other changes made are in style.
