

for the reports is proposed for deletion, since the contract will require this in any event. The only other changes made are in style.

SUBTITLE 3. STANDING COMMITTEE ON RULES.

SEC. 13-301. COMMITTEE ON RULES OF PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE.

TO AID IN THE EXERCISE OF ITS RULE-MAKING POWERS, THE COURT OF APPEALS MAY APPOINT A STANDING COMMITTEE OF LAWYERS AND JUDGES. A COMMITTEE MEMBER SHALL SERVE WITHOUT COMPENSATION, BUT SHALL BE REIMBURSED FOR TRAVELING AND OTHER EXPENSES INCURRED ON COMMITTEE BUSINESS.

SEC. 13-302. ASSISTANTS.

THE COURT OF APPEALS MAY EMPLOY NECESSARY ASSISTANTS FOR THE COMMITTEE AND FIX THEIR SALARIES.

SEC. 13-303. PAYMENT OF SALARIES AND EXPENSES.

THE DIRECTOR OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE COURTS SHALL PAY THE ASSISTANTS' SALARIES AS WELL AS THE TRAVELING AND OTHER EXPENSES OF THE COMMITTEE, INCLUDING PRINTING AND OTHER COSTS FROM THE APPROPRIATE BUDGET ALLOCATION.

REVISOR'S NOTE: Sections 13-301 through 13-303 presently appear as Art. 26, §28, rearranged in three sections. The specific reference to Art. 26, §25 is proposed for deletion, since the real function of the committee is to assist the court with its general constitutional rule-making activities. It seems undesirable to limit the committee's role to giving advice with respect to only one statutory grant of power.

Provisions dealing with payment of funds has been revised to reflect what is believed to be the present practice. The judicial council was abolished by Ch. 37, 1971. The only other changes made are in style.

SUBTITLE 4. COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL DISABILITIES.

SEC. 13-401. POWERS OF COMMISSION.
