

AND PROMULGATE THEM BY RULE OR REGULATION.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is composed of several present sections of the Code. It is intended to enumerate general powers and functions the department exercises which transcend only tidal or nontidal water circumstances.

Subsection (a) is new language derived from Article 66C, section 13(c) of the Code. A similar provision appears in Title 8 dealing with water and water resources, see proposed section 8-203(c). Article 66C, section 13 is proposed for repeal in Title 8 because its provisions are incorporated elsewhere within that title.

Subsection (b) also is new language derived from Article 66C, section 13(d) of the Code. A similar provision appears in Title 8 - Water and Water Resources as proposed section 8-203(c).

The first clause of subsection (c) is derived from the next-to-last provision of Article 66C, section 12 of the Code. Section 12 appears in Title 8 Water and Water Resources as proposed section 8-203(b). The second clause of this subsection is derived from Article 66C section 13A(h) of the Code.

Subsection (d) presently appears as Article 66C, section 13E(a) of the Code.

The first sentence of subsection (e) presently appears as Article 66C, section 236 of the Code. The balance of the section appears in subtitle 4 dealing with fish hatcheries.

Subsection (f) is new language derived from Article 66C, section 13A(d) of the Code.

Subsection (g) is new language derived from Article 66C, section 13A(e) of the Code.

Subsection (h) is new language derived from Article 66C, section 13A(j) of the Code.
