

first two sentences of section 314(b). The remainder of section 314(b) is proposed for deletion and appears in other subsections of this proposed section.

Subsection (d) is new language derived from Article 66C, section 315(a) and incorporates the provisions of section 315(b) relating to black bass. In addition, the provisions of section 314(b) relating to transportation and possession of black bass, and pike are included for purposes of clarity and organization. Article 66C, section 315(a) is proposed for deletion because its substance is set forth here.

Subsection (e) is new language based entirely upon the last sentence of section 314(b). By making this proviso applicable to the entire section, the Code user will realize that black bass do not include black sea bass.

Article 66C, section 315(a) and (b) is proposed for deletion since the provisions are incorporated in subsections (c) and (d).

The only other changes made are in style.
