EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

June 1, 1973.

Honorable William S. James
President of the Senate
State House
Annapolis, Maryland

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17, of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed Senate Bill 1201.

This bill requires the Board of Education of Charles County to purchase two specified school sites.

House Joint Resolution 113, which was enacted by the General Assembly and signed by me on May 30, 1973, accomplishes the same purpose as Senate Bill 1201. Because of the signing of House Joint Resolution 113, the sponsor of Senate Bill 1201 has concurred in the veto of this bill.

Accordingly, I have decided to veto Senate Bill 1201.

Sincerely,

MARVIN MANDEL,
Governor.

Which was read.

Senate Bill No. 1201—By Senator Bailey:

An Act to add new Section 369B to the Code of Public Local Laws of Charles County (1969 Edition and 1972 Supplement, being Article 9 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland), title "Charles County," subtitle "Schools," to follow immediately after Section 369A thereof, to require the Board of Education to acquire certain sites for school purposes in Charles County, and the County Commissioners of Charles County to appropriate from any general purpose County funds to support the purchase of the sites, and to allow acquisition by eminent domain if necessary.

The President put the question: Shall the bill pass notwithstanding the objections of the Executive?
