Article 19A - Conflicts of Interest

11.

[(a) Any person making any campaign contribution to a public officer and whose business with the State is in excess of ten thousand ($10,000) dollars per year on either an individual or cumulative basis, not including salaries paid by the State of Maryland shall file an annual statement, on or before September 1st of each year, covering all contributions or business dealings made during the twelve (12) months prior to the filing thereof. It shall contain a list of the names of all elected public officers to whom contributions were made and the names of the State agencies with which business was done, the amount of the contribution or business, and the details of the business dealings, with the office of the Secretary of State, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Delegates. "Contribution" means any gift, donation, or payment of money, the value of which is in excess of one hundred dollars to any public officer or to any other person on his behalf. Any payment in excess of one hundred dollars to a dinner, barbeque, fish fry, or other event shall likewise be deemed a contribution. However, a bona fide gift to a public officer by a relative within the third degree of consanguinity for the personal use of the public officer shall not be deemed a contribution. This section does
