

Sections 1 and 2
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1969 Replacement Volume and 1973 Supplement)

BY repealing and re-enacting, with amendments,

Article 88C - State Planning
Sections 1 through 11, inclusive, which are renumbered to be Sections 3 through 13, inclusive
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1969 Replacement Volume and 1973 Supplement)

BY adding to

Article 88C - State Planning
Sections 14 through 27
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1969 Replacement Volume and 1973 Supplement)]]

FOR the purpose of requiring the local subdivisions to determine and designate recommended areas of critical State concern as part of the comprehensive plans submitted to the Secretary of State Planning, requiring the Secretary to include as part of the State development plan the determination and designation of areas of critical State concern based upon the recommendations of the local subdivisions, providing for the establishment of guidelines for areas which may be of critical State concern, authorizing the Department of State Planning to intervene as a party and to have the rights of a party in certain administrative and judicial proceedings under certain circumstances, making certain style changes, and relating generally to State and local planning.

BY repealing and re-enacting, with amendments,

Article 88C - State Planning
Sections 1 and 2
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1969 Replacement Volume and 1973 Supplement)

BY adding to

Article 66B - Zoning and Planning
Section 3.05(a)(7)
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1970 Replacement Volume and 1973 Supplement)